

It is extremely important that consumer content use rights be kept consistent with the personal use laws that have been on the books for the past 30 years. Do not take away or attempt to modify my right to record and use content for personal reasons. I am going to be very upset if my existing ability to record and watch 720p or 1080i content is tampered with by Congress.